

It is Book Fair time and we are going online! From November 23 to December 6 you can shop from the entire catalogue of Scholastic books, from the comfort of your home. There are over 450 books available, plus bookmarks, posters and journals.

All orders over $35 qualify for free shipping, with bonus free shipping for all orders placed Wednesday November 25 and December 2, between 6 and 8pm.

The site will be live starting midnight November 23 and, just like with in person book fairs, the library will be given 20% of our sales to use to purchase books for the library. Happy reading!!!
